

Mystery Guest

We are going to have a mystery guest in today's class. You have to find out what the guest does for a living.

You can ask the guest questions about what they do, but the guest can only answer 'yes' or 'no'.

Here are some example questions to get you thinking.

Do you mostly work outdoors?	Do you build things?
Do you mostly work indoors?	Do you make things?
Do you wear a uniform?	Is your job to do with sport?
Do you use a computer a lot?	Is your job to do with money?
Do you use the telephone a lot?	Is your job to do with selling things?
Do you have to be imaginative?	Do you fix things in people's houses?
Is your job a 'helping' job?	Do you deal with emergencies?
Do you work with tools?	Do you make people better?
Do you work with people?	Do you drive something for your job?
Do you work with children?	Do you have to be good at science?
Do you work with animals?	Do you have to be good at maths?
Do you work with food?	Do you have to be good at art?
Do you play an instrument?	Do you have to know about history?
Is your job about transport?	Do you work during the day?
Do you deal with money?	Do you do something to do with the environment?
Do you design things?	Do you work in an office?
Is your job to do with holidays?	Do you work during the night?
